The Spurlock Museum celebrates the people and places of our world: our heritage as members of individual cultures and as the community of humanity.

Join Us Online

- www.spurlock.illinois.edu
- twitter.com/SpurlockMuseum
- facebook.com/SpurlockMuseum

Directions and Parking

The Spurlock Museum is located just off of Lincoln Avenue on the east side of the University of Illinois campus. There are metered spaces on the street or in the small lot south of the building. The adjacent unmetered University lot D-22 has free parking after 5 pm and on weekends.
Explore

- Hundley Central Core Gallery
  Celebrate the challenges that all humans share and each culture’s unique solutions.

- Laubin Gallery of American Indian Cultures
  Explore traditional and contemporary Native American lifeways.

- Whitten Gallery of South American Peoples
  View the unique display of artifacts and art of South American people.

- Workman Gallery of Ancient Mediterranean Cultures
  Uncover the life of citizens in Ancient Greece and Rome.

- Workman Gallery of Asian Cultures
  Journey among the islands of Indonesia and Oceania. Discover the enduring traditions of East Asia.

- African and Middle Eastern Cultures

- European Cultures

- American Indian Cultures

- South American Peoples

- Ancient Mediterranean Cultures

- Asian Cultures

- Campbell Gallery
  Visit often to see changing exhibits that invite you to learn about new peoples and places.

- Faletti Gallery of African Cultures
  Meet ancient and modern peoples of Africa.

- Leavitt Gallery of Middle Eastern Cultures
  Travel back to the beginnings of civilization along the great rivers of Egypt and the Fertile Crescent.

- Simonds Pyatt Gallery of European Cultures
  Trace changes and developments in European life since the fall of Rome.

- Zahn Learning Center
  Join us for hands-on family programming.

- Knight Auditorium
  Attend lectures by local and visiting scholars. Experience performances of music, dance, theater, and stories from around the world.

Map is not to scale.