

SWAMI TYAGANANDA

“Learning from Rāmāyana”

March 24, 2024 at 3:00 p.m.
Spurlock Museum

About the Speaker

Swami Tyagananda joined the Ramakrishna Order at the monastery in Mumbai in 1976 after graduating from the University of Mumbai in India. He received spiritual instruction (mantra-dīkṣā) from Holy Mother Sarada Devi's direct disciple, Swami Vireswarananda.

He is the Hindu chaplain at Harvard and MIT since 1999 and, after Swami Sarvagatananda's retirement in 2002, he was appointed head of the Vedanta Society in Boston.

This event is free and open to the public.
