

Afro-Brazilian Percussion Workshops

Spurlock Museum of World Cultures

600 S. Gregory Street, Urbana, IL

Saturday, July 31, 2021

Saturday, August 21, 2021

2:00 - 3:30pm

Free community workshops introducing Afro-Brazilian drumming traditions including samba, samba-reggae, and maracatu are offered by Robert E. Brown Center for World Music, Capoeira Angola Center of Mestre João Grande – Illinois, and Spurlock Museum of World Cultures.

Workshops are led by Mark Becker, a Capoeira Angola student of Contra-Mestre Denis Chiaramonte, and a musician experienced with samba 'blocos' in both Brazil & the United States.

Spurlock Museum acknowledges support from the Illinois Arts Council Agency.

I ILLINOIS

Music

COLLEGE OF FINE & APPLIED ARTS

cwm.illinois.edu

*Beginner and experienced players welcome.
Instruments will be provided.*