

FOOD AS POWER

A CONVERSATION WITH AUTHOR
DR. BOBBY J. SMITH II

How was food used as a weapon against African Americans during the civil rights movement in Mississippi? How did African Americans fight back?

Join Dr. Bobby J. Smith II (Assistant Professor of African American Studies at UIUC) and Monica M. Scott (Spurlock Museum) in conversation around Dr. Smith's book.

FRIDAY,
MARCH 29
5:00 PM
SPURLOCK MUSEUM

This program is inspired by themes from the Black Joy Project at Spurlock (through December 1, 2024).

600 S Gregory St, Urbana
217-333-2360 | www.spurlock.illinois.edu
@spurlockmuseum f i v

