Japanese Paper Print Project: Film and Live Music Event

Friday, March 28, 7pm
Knight Auditorium, Spurlock Museum

The Japanese Paper Print Project restores 1930s Japanese paper films and brings them to life for modern audiences. The event will feature a short lecture from Dr. Eric Faden of Bucknell University about the history and technique of the art form, followed by a screening of 28 short films with live musical accompaniment of Yoko Reikano Kimura and Hikaru Tamaki. Free and open to the public.
