

Let's Talk About... Resistance

Wednesday April 2 • 7–8:30 pm

Explore stories of cultural self-determination in societies around the world. Dr. Christina Gonzalez, co-curator of Caribbean Indigenous Resistance / Resistencia Indígena del Caribe ¡Taino Vive!, will lead tours of the exhibit, and staff will share some of the museum's collections related to resistance and cultural identity in the face of oppression. Refreshments will be served.

This program is designed for college students, and adults are welcome too.
